Biography

ANGELA SWIFT, CO-OWNER/EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Angela founded Awaken Pictures, Inc with her husband, Tom Swift. As a wife and mother of three, she has a priceless family perspective which she brings to this company, bringing faith, integrity, and family values to the forefront. On the administration side, Angela has a valuable intuition, is detail oriented, and has a keen understanding of financial stewardship. She is a great researcher and producer as well. She also brings experience from the film and television industry, having worked as a background actress on various feature length movies, like "It Could Happen To You", "The Cowboy Way", "City Hall", and "Trial By Jury". She also has experience on the production side, having freelanced on the movie "A Bronx Tale", on a Woolite Carpet Cleaner commercial, and recently served as co-producer with Dan O'Connell on the documentary "Flood". Angela is also a skilled dancer, talented actress, writer, and still photographer.
